Miscellaneous Shower

On the evening of Nov. 18, Miss Olga Zawasky was invited to a Miscellaneous Shower, given in her honor by the ladies of the community.

To the strain of the Wedding March, Miss Zawasky was introduced to her friends. During the course of the evening Mrs. Cooley entertained the guests and kept the party interested with a series of games.

Mrs. Wanner and Mrs. Withell made the presentation to the guest of honor of a gorgeously decorated basket filled with the lovely gifts from her many friends.

Olga opened the gifts and passed them around for the admiration of those present, following which Olga thanked them for their great kindness and also for their good wishes for her future happiness.

A very tasty lunch was served and enjoyed by all, and the singing of "She's a Jolly Good Fellow" closed the evening.

CHARIVARI HELD

About thirty friends gathered to gether to Charivari Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mitchell on Wednesday evening Nov. 25th. The bride and groom made welcome the crowd and then passed cigarettes and candies. The evening was spent in singing, dancing and playing games.

After lunch hands were joined around Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell while every one sang "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Will Have to File Statement With Income Tax Inspector

Farmers who employ temporary help for harvest during the months of September, October and November must file a statement with the Income Tax Inspector, but will not be required to deduct the tax from the pay of such employees.

The Department of National Revenue has recently ruled that farmers who engage temporary help for the months of September, October and November will not be called upon to deduct income tax from such employees when they pay the helpers. Persons employed for the harvest season generally are paid on a daily basis and do not earn enough to render them liable to the tax.

Farmers, however, will be obliged to file a statement with the Inspector of Income Tax for his district, giving the name and address of the employee and the amount paid.

CHINOOK STUDENT AWARDED MEDAL

It was with a good deal of satisfaction that Chinook students and annual circles welcomed the news on Monday that Hubert Dudley Connor was successful in winning the Governor General's Bronze Medal. This is an annual award made to the grade nine student in each of the inspectorates of the province achieving the highest average on the Departmental Examinations. I am given to understand that this is the first time in the history of the Chinook Consolidated that such a major scholastic award has come to this school.

It is with sincere appreciation that I tender on behalf of Chinook Consolidated, our thanks to Dudley Connor; to Miss E. E. McDonald, his grade nine teacher, now teaching in Medicine Hat; and to the Connor home, whose efforts and co-operation have brought such distinctive honours to our school.

If Marketing Late Facilities Won't be Available for Handling

Farmers are being advised to market live poultry as early as possible. The necessity of this program is twofold. In the first instance it is a fact that there is an extremely heavy crop of poultry to be marketed this season and if marketing is to be late as is usual, it will be almost an impossibility for existing facilities in Alberta to accommodate offerings. While it is difficult to forecast commodity markets with world conditions such as they are, it would seem quite reasonable that if the large poultry crop is to be thrown on the market in a very short period, reduced prices may follow, yet on the other hand, if it can be moved in an orderly manner, it should be possible to receive and distribute all poultry at present levels.

Secondly the program of voluntary curtailment of the purchase of pork products during the next eight weeks as forecast by the Federal Government will naturally increase the consumer demand for chicken and with this increased demand, it can be expected that chicken prices will remain at least on a steady basis.

"We'll hold your place"

IN EVERY city, town and village throughout Canada today there are gaps where once were young men. They heard a call and put on navy blue, khaki, horizon blue, and they have gone, answering a call...

They are missed—missed not only in their homes but also in the business places which once they filled.

They have gone from every institution in Canada; but from none more than from the chartered banks. There is hardly a branch office from coast to coast which is not today the poorer—and the prouder—for those who thus laid down their pens.

But every branch manager, as he shook parting hands, had this consolation: he could say, "We'll hold your place. It will be waiting for you when you come back. That is a pledge."

So it is the part of those who remain to serve their country in such a way that the promise may be kept: "We'll hold your place."

There were 14,433 single and married men from 18 to 45 years of age employed by the Chartered Banks at the outbreak of war, 5,053—or 35% of them had joined the armed forces by October 31st, 1942; 1,243 others who joined bank staffs since war began have also enlisted.

Successful Victory Loan

BY OVER SUBSCRIBING the recent Victory Loan, Canadians showed that without doubt they are solidly behind the men in the armed services, and the war effort at home. This was the third time that the people of Canada have been asked to subscribe their savings for war purposes, and the drive came at a time when taxes are heavier and are affecting a greater part of our population than ever before in our history. Yet more people subscribed to this loan than to any previous one and it is said that many of those who bought bonds in this drive were investing in war savings for the first time. Over subscribed by more than two hundred million dollars, the loan, which opened with an objective of $750,000,000 was described by those in charge of it, as the most successful one ever held. The conclusion of the loan campaign coincided with the beginning of the great Allied offensive in Egypt and North Africa and its reaffirmed the faith of the Canadian people in the cause for which we are fighting, and their conviction in a final victory for the United Nations.

Voluntary Work Is Appreciated

Officials in charge of the loan have drawn attention to the many voluntary services given by people in all walks of life to the promotion of the loan campaign and to the actual work of selling the bonds. All across Canada, these people gave freely of their time and to them should be given much credit for the success of the drive. Canadian entertainers, joined on numerous occasions by outstanding personalities from the United States, worked hard, at no personal gain, to keep the loan before the public. Thanks were likewise expressed to the churches and the press across Canada for emphasizing the importance of the loan. In every community, large numbers of men and women, many of them very busy with affairs of their own, spent long hours canvassing homes and offices in selling the bonds. To all these people gratitude is due for the success of the loan, and they may feel that they have made a very important contribution to Canada's part in the winning of the war.

Bonds Regarded As A Trust

From many sources has come a plea to purchasers of these bonds to regard them as a wartime trust and to retain them except in cases of extreme necessity. There are instances in which investors have found it hard to maintain the standard of self-denial they set for themselves when purchasing their bonds, and they have subsequently withdrawn their money. While these bonds may be easily transformed into cash when money is urgently needed, investors are asked to remember at all times the purpose of the loan, and to refrain from cashing in the bonds, at least until the war is won. Not only is it important to the war effort that this money be left with the government, but it is also to the interest of the investors to leave it there. While every effort is being made to plan for economic stability in the post-war era, there will be a period of readjustment for many workers, and a reserve of war savings may prove to be of practical as well as patriotic value. "Nothing Matters Now But Victory" was the slogan of the drive and Canadians showed that they were solidly behind this sentiment when they so enthusiastically over subscribed the large objective set for them.

Vitamins Are Temperamental!

Many mothers believe that because they and their families consume the prescribed amount of green vegetables and fruit each day they are accordingly obtaining the basic proportion of essential vitamins. Actually, they may be falling far short of their needs. Vitamins are temperamental, and can be wholly or partially destroyed by wrong cooking methods. Simplicity is the basic principle to be observed in cooking anything. Fancy foods that go through several cooking processes before they reach the table (even so common a procedure as boiling potatoes and then frying them) lose vitamins in each operation. Many vitamins, too, are carried off in steam from over-boiled foods.

Here are a few simple rules for preserving vitamins in cooked foods:

- (1) Use a minimum amount of cooking water.
- (2) Cook in covered vessels for as short a time as possible.
- (3) Avoid stirring.
- (4) Never add baking soda.
- (5) Start vegetables in hot water.
- (6) Serve the cooking liquids in soups.
- (7) Handle fruits and vegetables as little as possible.
- (8) Use a brush to clean vegetables rather than a knife to scrape them.
- (9) Cooking in their natural state (i.e. potatoes in jackets) as far as practicable.

Shredding, cutting and peeling of fruits and vegetables can result in severe losses of Vitamin C. This should only be done shortly before serving. Fruits and vegetables should be stored in the refrigerator until required. Both B and C vitamins are soluble in water and you can get the most out of them by serving the dishes they're cooked in. Vitamin B1 and also Vitamin C are allergic to alkali. Baking soda added to cooking will cause them to disintegrate.

By observing these few rules housewives will be sure that the valuable vitamins that are needed by the members of her family are not being needlessly lost.

Send a post card request to Western Division, Health League of Canada, 111 Avenue Road, Toronto, Ontario, for our free, up-to-date Vitamin Chart.

The Czechs are known as excellent gymnasts and sportsmen, but the latest find of the young Czech sportsmen in causing the Nazis great trouble. According to a report published by Nae Noviny in London and based on information given by a lady who succeeded in escaping from the "Protectorate" to a neutral country, Czech boys took great pleasure in climbing the roofs of public buildings where Nazi flags are unfurled in order to cut out the swastika and leave a round hole as the symbol of Nazism. Special guards were assigned to guard the Nazi flags, but so far no culprit has been detected.

NEWS of your Army

(By Lieut. Clair Ganong, Public Relations Officer)

For the first time Canadian women soldiers started for overseas where war is real and grim. One hundred and nine personnel of the Canadian Women's Army Corps left St. Anne de Bellevue, Que., for an Eastern Canadian port. At their head was Capt. Frances "Dime" Riley, of Winnipeg, whose husband has been serving overseas for a year and a half, and at the head of No. 3 platoon was Lieut. Gloria Queen-Hughes, of Halifax and Winnipeg, whose husband is a prisoner of war in Hong Kong.

Subsistence allowance paid to Warrant Officers, N.C.O.'s, and men and corresponding ranks of the C.W.A.C. for the Army have been increased from $1 to $12.25 a day effective from October 1, 1942.

Thirty more members of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, headed by 2nd Lieut. Enid Clark, of Vancouver, B.C., have left for Washington, D.C. Ten of the girls will be posted to the Inspection Board of the United Kingdom and Canada, and the remainder will be posted to the British Army staff in clerical capacities.

Sherwood, V.C., who has just relinquished his command. Lt.-Col. W. E. Baker, E.D., of the Sherbrooke Regiment, has been appointed G.S.O. I. in the Directorate of Military Training at National Defence Headquarters. Lt.-Col. Drastic steps to conserve electricity have been instituted in recent months by the Department of National Defence. Defence Minister Ralston has revealed. Not only are rigid economies in consumption of electricity practised in all buildings controlled by National Defence Headquarters in Ottawa, but throughout

The Canadian Army is making a tremendous contribution, through tire maintenance, to overcome the critical rubber situation. An extensive programme has been formulated which controls the operation of every pneumatic and solid tire on every motor transport vehicle, tank, gun carriage and motorcycle. As soon as wear or injury is noticed the tire is immediately removed and repaired. Recapping has been adopted as a general policy. This must not be confused with retreading which is now an obsolete method. Tires are often recapped three times and records prove that the original mileage of motorcycle tires in many cases has been trebled.

FOUR CENTURIES AGO

If you think blood transfusions are modern, says Neal O'Hara, he informed that back in 1492 when Pope Innocent VIII was dying, he was given transfusions from three youthful volunteers. They were unsuccessful, however, quite possibly because in those days blood wasn't typed or the method of infusion was too crude. But the ancient Roman physician still had the right idea.

HOME SERVICE

EVEN BUSIEST LADY CAN GROW THESE PLANTS

Decorate For All The House You'd love to decorate your home with plants, but you haven't time to take care of them? Many beautiful plants take care of themselves. In almost any spot, one or another will thrive.

Sprays of Chinese evergreen and chrysanthemum grow in a low water-filled bowl, make a lovely centerpiece for your table. Just rinse bowl and add fresh water once a week. Dracaena, tall, with variegated foliage, does well even where there's little direct sunlight—near a fireplace or on a stairway landing. So does sansevieria which grows for months without drainage.

Flowering plants, of course, require more attention, but are not too exacting. Jerusalem cherry, so colorful with its gay red fruit, asks only sunlight and protection from drafts and gas.

It's easy to brighten your home with plants! Our 32-page booklet describes simple care of many lovely foliage and flowering house plants, including azalea, flowering maple, cyclamen. Tells how to grow vines, ferns, bulbs.

Send 15c in coins for your copy of "Raising Plants and Flowers Grow Indoors" to Home Service Dept., Winnipeg Newspaper Agency, 375 McDermitt Ave. E., Winnipeg, Man. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Light, fine-textured, tempting—but to assure best results, remember use Swans Down Cake Flour. In all sugarless baking you need the extra lightness and delicacy that Swans Down gives to cakes.

Make specially for cake-baking from selected parts of choice, soft wheat, Swans Down Cake Flour is milled with great care, sifted again and again through silk to exquisite fineness that makes cakes more tender and appetizing.

For Better Cakes, Use SWANS DOWN BRAND CAKE FLOUR

2 EGG SUGARLESS CAKE

5 1/2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour 1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. Colman's Mustard 1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 tsp. baking powder 1/2 cup light cream syrup
1 egg, unbeaten 1/2 cup milk

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening with orange rind; add syrup gradually, beating well after each addition. Add 1/2 cup flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add eggs one at a time, beating after each. Add remaining flour in thirds, alternately with milk in halves, beating very well after each addition. For best results beat cake very well at each stage of mixing. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375°F) 30 minutes or until done.

Germination Tests and Dormancy

Two years ago, we installed two germinators with electrical temperature control and invited farmers to submit samples of their small grain

seeds for testing. Nearly 5,000 farmers' samples were tested. Last year,

5,088 samples passed through our laboratory.

What may be expected of us this year, remains to be seen. We shall do our best to meet all demands; but take this opportunity to urge farmers to bring their seed samples into grain buyers for forwarding to us at the earliest possible date, and so enable us to spread the work over a long season. We are certain to be taxed

(with samples!) to the limit in February and March.

Last fall we announced the installation of a refrigerating pre-chiller. The purpose of this was to enable us to begin testing early without fear of underestimating the germination percentage as a result of dormancy.

Some samples, as we have explained

before, require a sort of "rest period,"

CHRISTMAS MAIL

Greater care than ever before is necessary on the part of mailers, in the preparation of their overseas parcels, in order to avoid delay. Address all mails in ink, fully, clearly and without misleading abbreviations. Be sure to place return address on cover also include a slip in no parcel bearing sender's address; well as address or parcel. Prepay if mail correctly.

Parcels should be packed compactly enough to resist the pressure of other mails in the sack and the handling in transit. The strong corrugated containers, not light cardboard boxes, wrap in several layers of thick wrapping paper, and tie securely with a strong cord. Do not use Christmas issue paper for wrapper, or coloured ribbons to tie. Parcels may be sewn in a strong cotton or similar fabric. Jams, syrups and any other substance likely to leak and spread, if sent at all, must be enclosed in sealed containers, (not glass bottles), surrounded with absorbent material in corrugated cardboard, and securely wrapped and tied. A completed Customs Declaration form should accompany every parcel. Apples, grapes, etc. or any article likely to spoil or become damaged, or to injure Postal personnel, or the mails are not acceptable. The mailing of Matches, Safety Matches and Lighter Fluid or any other inflammable substance is strictly prohibited by law.

Citizens, by refraining from writing to our Forces overseas that gifts are being sent, until actually mailed, can save much disappointment. Do not disappoint our men by mailing their gifts too late for Christmas delivery.

Fathers of Heroes Buy Victory Bonds

Yard Foreman R. Smith, of Ottawa, one of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's volunteer Victory Bond salesmen, selling a substantial bond to Conductor A. C. Trudeau before the latter starts on his morning way-freight run.

Yard Foreman Smith's son, Sgt. Pilot Donald Smith, of the R.C.A.F., was killed in air operations over Germany on August 13th, 1941. A second son, Lieut. Lorne L. Smith, is at present overseas on active service with the Glenora Highlanders. Conductor Trudeau also had a son, Col. Joseph Keith Trudeau, R.C.A.F., killed on active service. This occurred during the blitz over England in April, 1941. Another son, Basil Trudeau, who was a trainman with the Canadian Pacific Railway, at Ottawa, is at present training with the R.C.A.F. as a pilot. In picture left to right, Yard Foreman R.
